

To The Dead in the Graveyard Underneath My Window

To The Dead in the Graveyard Underneath My Window

Adelaide CRAPSEY (1878 - 1914)

Her death was tragic. Full of the desire of life she yet was forced to go, leaving her work all unfinished. Her last year was spent in exile at Saranac Lake. From her window she looked down on the graveyard — "Trudeau's Garden," she called it, with grim-gay irony. from the forward to Verse, by Claude Bragdon - Summary by from the forward to Verse, by Claude Bragdon

Read by LibriVox volunteers. Total running time: 00:48:44

This recording is in the public domain and may be reproduced, distributed, or modified without permission. For more information or to volunteer, visit librivox.org. Cover picture by Martin Barák (2017). Copyright expired in U.S., Canada, EU. and all countries with author's life +70 yrs laws. Cover design by Carolin. This design is in the public domain.

To The Dead in the Graveyard Underneath My Window